JURY COMMENTS

This is the 12th year of this annual BSA program and we received 130 submissions from design practitioners, educators, and students throughout the US and beyond.

We were pleased to note again this year that the work submitted continues to be an intriguing mix of theoretical design explorations, environmental polemic, and more practical projects that respond to the needs of real clients.

We spent a good deal of the long jury session discussing the qualities we were seeking as we attempted to identify exceptional work in this year's program. In general, we believed that the projects deserving recognition were projects characterized by design innovation, uncommon use of materials, high level of imagination, resolution of a significant problem, offering a new perspective on an old issue or articulating issues heretofore unexamined, superior graphic skills, clarity of the story being told, and a sense of humor as appropriate.

This World Trade Center memorial features bubbles that are released from Ground Zero and dispersed throughout the site and the city. As such, the bubbles carry the significance of the memorial beyond the physical boundaries of the site where citizens from 92 countries perished on September 11, 2001.
